Lt. Governor Peter Kinder Receives Award from NRA Foundation

Jefferson City-Lt. Governor Peter Kinder was recognized by the National Rifle Association for his work in defense of the 2nd Amendment and his work to secure the right to carry concealed weapons in Missouri. He was presented the award by NRA representative Whitney O'Daniel.

"I am proud to be a member of NRA and was honored to be acknowledged for my efforts to protect the rights of Missourians to own and carry firearms legally," said Lt. Governor Kinder. He added, "No organization has been more effective and dedicated to defending the 2nd Amendment, and I will continue to support their future efforts."

"The NRA is fortunate to have Lt. Governor Kinder on the front lines in defending the rights of sportsmen and gun owners in America," said NRA-ILA Executive Director, Chris Cox. Cox added, "Peter Kinder has been a staunch defender of the 2nd Amendment for many years. His legislative efforts had been unrivaled, and we thank him for his steadfast work."

Lt. Governor Kinder gave a presentation before the National Firearms Law Seminar held during the National NRA Convention, entitled 'A Brief History of Concealed Carry in Missouri'. St. Louis hosted the NRA National Convention at the America's Center this past April 13-15.
